Flagstaff, AZ – The search for Tomomi Hanamure continued throughout Saturday May 13, 2006 and involved more than 40 officers, search and rescue volunteers and mounted personnel from six agencies and the Arizona Department of Public Safety Helicopter.

Coconino County Sheriff's Detectives were advised by a resident of the Havasupai Village of the presence of a person in a body of water located north of the village. At approximately 2:30 pm detectives located the body. Officers and Detectives of the Coconino County Sheriff's Office, the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Federal Bureau of Investigation are investigating this case as a suspicious death. At this point in the investigation the body has not been identified and it is unknown if this person is Tomomi Hanamure.
