

Coconino County Sustainable Building Program (CCSBP) Project Description Form

Project Owner: _____
 Project Address: _____
 Phone: _____
 Email: _____
 Contractor Name: _____

Please circle the type of your project: Residential Non-Residential

Check one or more of the categories that qualify your house for an award or certificate from the Coconino County Sustainable Building Program: (see below for category descriptions)

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Community and Site Planning
<input type="checkbox"/> Water Conservation
<input type="checkbox"/> Building Materials
<input type="checkbox"/> Innovation | <input type="checkbox"/> Energy conservation
<input type="checkbox"/> Indoor Air Quality
<input type="checkbox"/> Remodels |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Check the features included in your house:

Features by Award and Certificate Category
1) Community and Site Planning - Pre-construction planning, such as: <input type="checkbox"/> Open space, <input type="checkbox"/> Clustering buildings, <input type="checkbox"/> Street orientation, <input type="checkbox"/> Reducing site disturbance, <input type="checkbox"/> Landscaping for cool and hot climates, <input type="checkbox"/> Other	4) Indoor Air Quality – (IAQ) <input type="checkbox"/> Proper ventilation and air flow, <input type="checkbox"/> Radon control <input type="checkbox"/> Backdrafting from appliances, <input type="checkbox"/> Use of low VOC caulks, sealants, adhesives, flooring, wood products, and paints. <input type="checkbox"/> Other
2) Energy conservation - This includes: <input type="checkbox"/> Passive and active solar buildings, <input type="checkbox"/> Use of daylighting, <input type="checkbox"/> Use of overhangs and landscaping to manage solar energy, <input type="checkbox"/> Energy efficient appliances <input type="checkbox"/> Energy efficient lighting, <input type="checkbox"/> Other	5) Building Materials - Categories include: <input type="checkbox"/> Alternative construction, such as straw bale and SIPS <input type="checkbox"/> Enhanced Stick Frame construction <input type="checkbox"/> Regional Materials Used <input type="checkbox"/> Other
3) Water Conservation – Includes: <input type="checkbox"/> Xeriscaping, <input type="checkbox"/> Rain catchment and use of <input type="checkbox"/> Graywater, and <input type="checkbox"/> Water saving devices in the home such as low-flow fixtures and appliances. <input type="checkbox"/> Other	6) The Re Category – This includes reuse, recycling, remodels etc. <input type="checkbox"/> Built-in Recycling containers <input type="checkbox"/> Recycled Materials used <input type="checkbox"/> Remodeled Building verses tear down and rebuild <input type="checkbox"/> Reduced construction waste plan <input type="checkbox"/> Other
<input type="checkbox"/> Other	7) Innovation - Includes innovative building designs that encapsulate the ideals of sustainable building. (please describe) <input type="checkbox"/>

(continue on next page)

