

County Attorney's Office holds 2nd Annual Dedication Event

The attorneys and staff of the Coconino County Attorney Office gathered on Wednesday, January 4, 2012 to re-dedicate themselves to the important work they do advocating for justice. Supervisor Lena Fowler, Chairperson for the Board of Supervisors, administered the oath of service to County Attorney David Rozema:

I, David W. Rozema, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the laws of the State of Arizona, that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same and defend them against all enemies, foreign and domestic, and that will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of the office of COUNTY ATTORNEY according to the best of my ability, so help me God (or so do I affirm).

County Attorney Rozema then administered the oath to all of the attorneys and staff. "This event gets us all together to celebrate the start of a new year and to reaffirm our oath to serve the public with integrity and honor. It's very special and a lot of fun!", said County Attorney David Rozema.

The event included taking the annual office photo and presentation of personalized coffee mugs bearing the office motto, "We serve the public by advocating for justice."
