

Coconino County News Release—For Immediate Release

From: Coconino County Board of Supervisors
Contact: Brenda Grey, Asst. to the County Manager/PIO, (928) 779-6695; (800) 559-9289
Date: June 11, 2009

Fort Tuthill Military History Museum Presents 108th Army Band Arizona National Guard — Annual Independence Day Celebration —

Flagstaff, Az. – The outstanding 108th Army Band Arizona National Guard will perform in concert at the Fort Tuthill Military History Museum on Sunday, July 5 at 5:00 p.m. This will mark the 4th year the band has performed at the Museum's annual Independence Day celebration.

Previous concert attendees have been unanimous in their praise of this excellent military band. A collection of original weapons, flags and photographs associated with the Theodore Roosevelt era and Spanish American War will also be on display from 10:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Both the concert and Theodore Roosevelt collection are free of charge.

In addition to the concert and special display, several new exhibits have been added to Museum displays illustrating Arizona's famous 158th Infantry Regiment and Afghanistan deployment of the 1st Battalion 158th Infantry.

The Museum is located approximately 4 miles south of Flagstaff at Fort Tuthill County Park. Take exit 337 to the park entrance and follow the signs. Museum hours are 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Saturdays, and noon to 4:00 p.m. on Sundays. Depending on staffing, the Museum may also be open Thursdays and Fridays from noon to 4:00 p.m. Please call (928) 226-0965 to confirm hours of operation.

Museum admission is $3 for adults—and children 13 and under, National Guard, active duty and active reserve personnel are free of charge.

Join us at the Fort Tuthill Military History Museum in celebration of Independence Day, honoring those who served and now serve to defend the freedoms we enjoy.

###