“This park is a tribute to my family, who inspired me, the residents who trusted me to represent them, and the many people who rolled up their sleeves alongside me to build a caring community. All I ever wanted to do was to make a difference in a person’s life and make a better tomorrow for children. I am a proud Latina who loves my community. I never forget where I came from; I am the daughter of Hispanic pioneers who founded Flagstaff. This park stands on the land where my ancestors worked to create Flagstaff, the community that nurtured me and believed in me.

As a public servant I draw strength from my family history; a legacy of hard work, giving back to the community, love of the land, and hope for a better tomorrow.

May all who visit this park be inspired to give back, be stewards of the land and create a better tomorrow.”
