Coconino County Proclamation

Celebrating the Grand Opening of the Molly Blank Jewish Community Center

Whereas, Coconino County is proud to celebrate and recognize its growing and flourishing Jewish American community; and

Whereas, the contributions of Jewish Americans in the history and growth of the United States, the Grand Canyon State, and Coconino County cannot be understated; and

Whereas, Coconino County is proud to support the Jewish community and forcefully oppose all forms of anti-Semitism; and

Whereas, Chabad of Flagstaff has enriched the lives of Jewish residents, students, and community members; and

Whereas, Chabad of Flagstaff supports Jewish tourism to Coconino County positively contributing to the continued economic success of northern Arizona; and

Whereas, the Molly Blank Jewish Community Center and the greater Jewish community of Coconino County is embarking on a new era of expansion that will enrich Jewish education, culture, and life with world-class facilities and educational programs, drawing visitors from around the world, bringing positive recognition to northern Arizona; now, therefore,

The Coconino County Board of Supervisors do hereby proclaim “Mazel Tov” on the opening of the Molly Blank Jewish Community Center and commend Chabad of Flagstaff for their significant contributions to Coconino County.

Signed and sealed 3rd day of September.
