Coconino County announces COVID-19 Testing and Vaccination Site Changes Due to Weather

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. — Due to an increase in snowfall, vaccination appointments at Fort Tuthill in Flagstaff for today, January 25, from 1 p.m. and onward are cancelled. Those with cancelled vaccine appointments will be contacted directly via email to reschedule. If you have a vaccination appointment scheduled up to and including 12 p.m. today, your appointment still stands and we are expecting you to arrive. Coconino County intends to operate the vaccination site tomorrow, Jan. 25, as usual. If additional weather conditions impact, the public will be notified and those with appointments will be provided rescheduling instructions.

COVID-19 Testing Changes Due to Adverse Weather Conditions: Testing at Coconino Community College located at the Lone Tree Campus in Flagstaff will close today at noon due adverse weather conditions. Appointments can be rescheduled the ASU registration portal. Visit www.coconino.az.gov/covid19 to reschedule testing appointments. The COVID-19 Testing Site located at NAU Fieldhouse is open and planning to offer testing per their regular testing hours today.
