A.R.S. §11-1008;
 Every person owning or keeping a dog in Coconino County must purchase a license when the dog is three months of age; or within 30 days of becoming owner or keeper; or within 30 days after moving to Coconino County.

Spay/Neuter Certificate required for sterilized fee.
 If your dog has been spayed or neutered, a certificate from a veterinarian is required. You will be required to pay the unsterilized fee if you have no certificate.

Please attach your dog's rabies vaccination certificate to the license application.
 Incomplete and/or applications without required certificates (rabies vaccination and spay/neuter for sterilized fee) will be returned.

The tag assigned to your dog will be the permanent tag for the life of the dog.
 Animal Management will mail dog license(s) to you after processing your application. Please allow 3-4 weeks for processing.
 If you have questions, please call Animal Management at 928-679-8756.
