Resource Navigation

The Health Disparities Program funds nine partner-agency resource navigator positions and two internal Coconino County Health & Human Services resource navigator positions. Resource navigators, or comparable agency titles, are tasked with connecting community members to social and health services. Partner agencies include:

- Candelen
- Catholic Charities
- Flagstaff Family Food Center
- Native Americans for Community Action
- Northland Family Help Center
- Red Feather Development Group
- The Guidance Center
- CCHHS – Flagstaff & Page

From April 2022 - June 2022, 1,802 individuals have been served by resource navigators employed by the Health Disparities Grant, including 538 resource connections. Resource connections refer to formal and informal referrals to internal and external community resources/programs.

Highlight: Northern Arizona University

Through the Health Disparities Grant, Northern Arizona University - Center for Health Equity Research is conducting a two-part "Community Voices Photo Project" to capture community voices through photos. Results of this project will be shared with CCHHS leadership for project and program planning.
