Rental property is defined as a property that is rented by owner to a non-qualified family member for more than 3 months of a year.

- Qualified family members per ARS §§ 42-12053:
1. The owner's natural or adopted child or descendant of the owner's child.
 2. The owner's parent or an ancestor of the owner's parent.
 3. The owner's stepchild or stepparent.
 4. The owner's child-in-law or parent-in-law.
 5. The owner's natural or adopted sibling.

Primary residence is defined as residence where you reside more than 9 months of the year. You can only have one primary residence. If the above residence is used as a vacation home, rented to non-qualified family member or if you have a homestead exemption in another state, this property cannot qualify as a primary residence.
